Liability for Contents

The contents of our pages have been drawn up with the greatest of care. However, we cannot assume responsibility for the accuracy, completeness or up-to-dateness of their contents. As a service provider we are responsible in accordance with §7 para 1 of the German Telemedia Act for our own contents on these pages pursuant to general laws. According to §§8 to 10 of the German Telemedia Act, however, we are not obliged as a service provider to monitor transmitted or stored third-party information or research into circumstances which indicate illegal activity. This does not affect obligations to remove or block the use of information according to general laws. However, liability in this respect is only possible from the time of becoming aware of a specific legal infringement. Upon becoming aware of corresponding legal infringements we will remove such contents immediately.

Liability for Links

Our offer contains links to external websites of third parties on whose contents we have no influence. For this reason we are not able to assume any guarantee for this third-party content. In all cases it is the respective provider or operator of the pages that is responsible for the contents of the linked pages. At the time of the creation of the link the linked pages were checked with respect to possible legal violations. At the time of the setting of the link, no illegal content was found. However, we cannot be reasonably expected to carry out permanent monitoring of the contents of the linked pages without specific indications of a legal violation. Upon becoming aware of legal infringements we will immediately remove such links.

Copyright

The contents and works created on these pages by the website operator are subject to German copyright law. The copying, processing, distribution and any other form of utilisation that goes beyond the limits of copyright law requires the written agreement of the respective order or compiler. Downloads and copies of this page are only permitted for private, non-commercial use. Insofar as the contents of this site have not been compiled by the operator, the copyrights of third parties must be complied with. In particular, the contents of third parties are identified as such. Nevertheless, if you should become aware of an infringement of copyright, we request that you notify us thereof. Upon becoming aware of legal infringements we will remove such contents immediately.

Data Protection

As a rule the use of our website is possible without providing personal data. Insofar as personal data is collected on the pages of our website (for example name, address or email addresses), this is always provided wherever possible on a voluntary basis. Without your express permission this data will not be passed on to third parties. We point out that the transmission of data on the Internet (e.g. in the case of communication by email) may involve security vulnerabilities. It is not possible to provide total protection of the data against access by third parties. The use by third parties of the contact data published in conjunction with the general information requirements of the e-commerce regulations for the transmission of advertising and information material which has not been specifically requested is hereby expressly prohibited. The operators of the website expressly reserve the right to take legal steps in the case of the unsolicited transmission of advertising information, for example spam.
